ITINERARY

Day 01: Agadir

Airport welcome service and full assistance upon arrival at Agadir's Airport where our vehicle pick you up from the airport to your hotel for dinner & overnight.

Day 02: Agadir - Marrakech

Early morning breakfast in the hotel, check-out and departure to Marrakech at 10 am. Arrival to Marrakech at lunchtime at a traditional restaurant in the medina. Then you will stroll along the small traditional shops, crafts long forgotten and cool gadgets for relatives you left behind. A fun festival for the senses and a great exercise for haggling! At sunset, you will also spend some time on the square Djemaa el Fna. This is where dozens of market stalls attract your attention, with sparkling fairy lights and dishes that will make your mouth water. Snake charmers hold their carpets and musicians turn around. Even if you spend 1001 nights, you would never have enough to fulfill your passion. Dinner & accommodation at the hotel.

Day 03: Marrakech

The visit of the royal city of Marrakech starts after breakfast in the hotel. You will pass by the jewels of the city, the palaces and the most beautiful buildings of the city. Starting with the Koutoubia Mosque overlooking Djemaa el-Fna square, the minaret can be seen from every part of Marrakech due to its central location. The minaret 69 m in height and dominates the skyline. Then you will return silently in the Saadian tombs, which were unearthed in 1917 and more than 150 sovereigns, their family members, servants and concubines were buried there. The next masterpiece is the Bahia palace that was built in the 19th century with adjoining gardens. The aim was to bring together in one building the Muslim and Moroccan styles. Free time for the whole afternoon. Our meeting is in the evening to enjoy a folkloric dinner with belly dancers. This is an opportunity to see the square in its best moments. Overnight in the hotel.

Day 04: Marrakech - Fez

After breakfast, drive via Beni Mellal to Azrou. A stop for lunch in Beni Mellal before heading to Ifrane, a winter sports destination. These cities are situated on a high plateau at 1650 m of altitude, covered with extensive cedar forests. Arrival to Fez for dinner and overnight.

Day 05: Nizwa - Muscat

After breakfast in the hotel, you will make a city tour that begins in Fez Medina, the oldest walled part of Fez also called Fez el Bali. You will visit Medersa el-Attarine, a beautiful location with Islamic schools, founded in the 14th century, Qaraouiyyine Mosque (exterior), one of the oldest Islamic universities and Nejjarine Souk, famous market where you can see the fountain with the same name. You can have lunch at a traditional restaurant located in the center of the medina. In the afternoon you will visit the souks and a workshop, leather processing, for which Fez is so famous. Free time in the late afternoon. Stay overnight in the hotel.

Day 06: Fez - Meknes - Chefchaouen

After breakfast at the hotel in the early morning, continuation to the holy city of Moulay Idriss, and via the ruins of the Roman city of Volubilis. We head towards Meknes and visit of the Ismailian capital famous for its 40 km long walls. Visit of the Bab Mansour, the Royal stables and the Jewish neighborhood. After lunch in Meknes, drive through the breathtaking landscapes of the fertile coastal plains. Pass by the city of Taza. We arrive in the region of the Rif Mountains which is the heart and location of the quiet blue and white washed city of Chefchaouen. Free time, dinner and overnight in Hotel Atlas Chaouen.

Day 07: Chefchaouen - Tangier

After breakfast, we head towards Tangier, where the beautiful light and multicultural spirit have inspired varied artists such as Tennessee Williams, the Rolling Stones, and Henri Matisse. People have been living in Tangier since the colonists from Carthage had settled there in the 5th century B-C, and over the years it has traded hands between several kingdoms and empires, and served as a refuge for countless cultures.
